The League in Knoxville but no Antifa

by Michael Hill , March 20, 2018

On St. Patrick's Day, The League of the South took 35-40 Southern nationalists & went to the heart of Antifa territory at Market Square in downtown Knoxville, Tennessee. We were there for nearly three hours on Saturday morning, yet not one single piece of Antifa scum showed up to challenge us. In all, we distributed several hundred pieces of Southern/White nationalist literature to receptive men and women. We had our group photo made in so-called "Antifa Alley."

We will be in Wetumpka, Alabama, on 7 April for our next public demonstration. Then . . . who knows?
